

Kresge Parliament – 5/12/11

Meeting Start: 6:33 Quorum: 8 Ice Breaker: What is your comfort food when you have had bad day?

Guests: Mike Yamaguchi-Gleason, CAO Porter/Kresge Colleges – Spring check-in

Discussed housing selection coming up. There are still some difficulties for Kresge/Porter housing including the 3500 freshmen class. He advised to attend the Housing Fair for options. Housing is discussing adjustments due to the large amount of transfer students that are residing in Porter (480 this year). He talked briefly about CA training and a roofing job to the main office building this summer. R3 plumbing is being fixed now. Also discussed increasing the bed spaces of Kresge in the next 5-6 years.

Budget Requests: Shebam: All female sketch comedy group for 8-9 years. SOAR Org.

Kendall and Kirstin are seeking $150 for the rent for Town Hall. Every quarter they have a show, this year it will be June 3rd at 8pm in the Kresge Town Hall. This event, and all of their events, are free. Advertising with flyers, Facebook and U-Tube videos. Not seeking funding anywhere else.

Budget Request for next week:

Eye Candy Film Journal: requesting $200 for ongoing printing costs. Parliament has already approved $75.00 this year. Hannah motions not to invite, Edward 2ds, 7 yes, 1 abstension

On the Spot: filming of game show - requesting funding for the tech. fees, $35

Using the Kresge Town Hall for their event, Last Slug Standing. It is a game show within the college. Hui motions to invite them, all in favor, approved by consensus to invite them to present next week.

Guests: Rahul Kalra - a write-in candidate for IVC (Internal Vice Chair of SUA)

A business management and accounting major with Cowell Senate for 2.5 years. His goals are to connect with the local college governments, assist student governments in organizing their events and bring creativity to the equation and change up the SUA events by holding spirit week. In addition he wants to support local sports teams, host a lip dub to capture each college's unique theme to establish an official video that represents UCSC. Also, he wants to create a committee for students to communicate with the dinning hall management. Lastly, he wants to introduce capping the budget, for example to cap the amount that is given to some orgs so more orgs can get funding.
